Books on the Bus launches

Books on the Bus launched at the Autumn Park Apartments in April. The "pop-up bookmobile" brings donated and purchased books to community hubs for residents to take, keep, and share as they like.

This pilot project is a partnership between Wilsonville Public Library and SMART Transit, with goals of increasing community familiarity with, and use of, SMART services, access to books and reading for all ages, and celebrating reading and mobility in our community with fun creativity!

Books on the Bus returns to Autumn Park Apartments May 3, from 4-5 pm. More locations coming soon!

Retired Library Services Manager receives state award

The Oregon Library Association presented the 2022 Distinguished Service Award to Steven Engelfried, who recently retired from the Wilsonville Public Library.

Steven has worked as a librarian for nearly 35 years, including 11 years at Wilsonville, most recently as Library Services Manager. He is a respected expert in children's literature, and served on the Caldecott and Newberry Committees. We appreciate Steven as an innovator, staff supporter, excellent performer, and a joy to work with. Congratulations, Steven!

Coming in June: Summer Reading Program
