Winter Break activities for all ages

Celebrate the winter holidays with these fun library activities in December.

"Take and Make" Crafting Kits will be available from Dec. 17-30, while supplies last. Our kids' bags include science and craft activities. The Teen/Adult bags include supplies for a holiday craft, as well as wintry activities.

The Scavenger Hunt returns Dec. 1. Find all 16 reading reindeer throughout the library building to solve the puzzle and win a small prize.

Kids can Take a Break with crafts, STEAM activities, and movies. Create some cozy crafts on Tuesdays (Dec. 20 & 27), try out some STEAM activities on Wednesdays (Dec. 21 & 28), and warm up with a wintry movie on Thursdays (Dec. 22 & 29). All activities are from 1-3pm and free.

Did you know?

The audiobooks have a new home

We are in the process of moving collections to different areas of the building to provide a better browsing experience.

Audiobooks were the first collection to move. Their new home is near the DVDs, CDs, and the Large Print books.

Physical audiobooks are available in MP3 and CD formats. Looking for digital audiobooks? You can use the Libby app to download digital audiobooks to your personal device.

New Books!

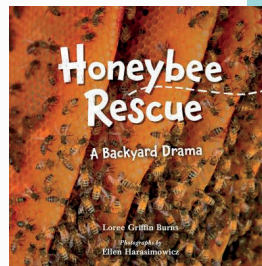

Check out these popular titles for kids and teens

The Sky Fox: A Peruvian Graphic Folktale

by Alberto Rayo

A fox who teases other animals receives a lesson in humility when he is left behind, uninvited to a party.

Honeybee Rescue

by Loree Griffin Burns

Honeybee rescuer Mr. Nelson relocates a colony of 35,000 bees from Mr. Connery's barn back to a hive.

Echoes of Grace

by Guadalupe Garcia McCall

On the Texas-Mexico border, eighteen-year-old Grace struggles to understand the "echoes" she inherited from her mother: visions which often distort her reality.
